

Danny R. Williams, JD, MNO

Danny R. Williams has spent his professional career serving the Greater Cleveland community as a practicing attorney, public official and nonprofit executive. He holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Princeton, law degree from the University of Michigan, and master's degree in nonprofit administration from Case Western Reserve University. He has also completed the Program for Senior Government Executives at the Kennedy School at Harvard, and the Program for Health Care Executives at the Anderson School of Management at UCLA.

Following a successful legal career, Danny served as Cleveland's Law Director in Mayor Michael R. White's administration and later as Cuyahoga County Administrator, before assuming leadership positions in the nonprofit sector. He has been Executive Director of the local chapter of the American Cancer Society, CEO of the Greater Cleveland Roundtable, a social justice advocacy organization, and Sr. V.P and General Counsel of the Greater Cleveland Partnership, Cleveland's chamber of commerce. Danny is a past president of the National Association of Free and Charitable Clinics and has served on several local boards, including the Ohio Association of Community Health Centers, University Circle, Inc. and Policy Bridge. He is also an adjunct faculty member at Case Western Reserve University, where he teaches a graduate-level course in Nonprofit Ethics and Professionalism.

In January 2017 he was named President & CEO of Eliza Bryant Village, a 120 year-old long-term care facility that provides skilled nursing, independent living housing and adult day care services for some of Greater Cleveland's poorest and most vulnerable elderly citizens. For the previous 10 years, Danny served as Executive Director of Circle Health Services (formerly, The Free Medical Clinic of Greater Cleveland), an Ohio nonprofit, which became a federally qualified health center in June 2012. Circle Health provides medical, dental, behavioral health and HIV/AIDS services to thousands of medically underserved patients every year.

Danny and his wife, Lin, reside in Cleveland Heights. They have a daughter who is a former sergeant in the U.S. Army and a son who is an NFL scout for the Chicago Bears.

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/dannyrwilliams>

Updated 4/11/17